

I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Romans 8:38–39)

Richard Rohr, OFM in his daily reflection dated May 16, 2020, encouraged us to . . .

“Let go of your burdens...to a Wisdom and Guidance greater than your own.
Imperfection is inevitable in earthly life, but all shall be well.”

He also highlighted this “Prayer of Awareness and Transformation” written by Bruce Epperly:

Holy Wisdom, Mother God, you hold my time in your hands.
Your providence guides the stars and my cells.
Your compassion opens my heart to healing in the midst of pain.
Help me rest in you, trusting the future in your care and giving comfort to those who mourn, hurt, and face personal challenge. In Christ’s name, Amen.

Bruce G. Epperly, The Mystic in You: Discovering a God-Filled World (Upper Room Books, 2017).

May you know peace today and every day of this new week! The Women’s Table

<https://thewomenstable.org>